

Na'ama Yehuda, MSC, Speech-Language-Pathologist; a clinician for over 30 years, Na'ama specializes in developmental trauma and complex clinical presentations. She was elected to serve in professional organizations in communication disorders (ISHLA) and in mental health (ISSTD), consults and publishes internationally (including an award-winning book on trauma and communication), and is dedicated to interdisciplinary collaboration.