

Speaker Bio

Peter Barach

I have been in the practice of clinical psychology for 40 years, specializing in the treatment of individuals living with dissociation. I am a past president of International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation. I was honored to be an invited presenter at Healing Together in 2023. I wrote the first article linking attachment issues to the development of DID. My approach is relational, and I have learned much from my clients!